Beskrivelser

The values of my life: "Would you cheat at a test if it meant you could get into the University you always dreamed of? Would you confront your friends if you by mistake saw them bully a girl from school on facebook? Come and discuss dilemmas and be aware of your own values and what you will build your future life on. It will all happen in a fun way and maybe surprisin way. Please be ready to listen and discuss with the other participants."

Nødhjælpens Ungdoms workshop "Dizzy goals challenge - Challenge yourself and your friends in the football match which help you to focus on UN's Global Goals"
